FOURTH DAY.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference met at 3½ o'clock, P. M., Bishop McTYEIRE in the Chair, and was opened with religious services, conducted by Rev. Dr. DUNCAN.

The Committee on the Bible Cause presented their report, which was read and adopted:

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause beg leave to submit the following report:

The Bible is the Book of books, and is therefore the source of all truth, emanating from God, the Giver of every good and perfect gift; and is the only infallible guide to man in all his relations and responsibilities in this life, and pointing out the way to eternal life. It is the foundation stone of all religious and benevolent associations; and those who adhere to its plain, significant doctrines will be safest in all things. Nevertheless, there are sometimes, within the bounds of our pastoral charges, families who are without the word of God. Therefore,

Resolved, That we, as members of the North Carolina Conference, will be more diligent in searching out those who are without the Scriptures, and endeavor to supply them. *

Resolved, That in order to meet this demand, we will co-operate most cordially with the Agent of the American Bible Society for North Carolina by giving him access to our people in any reasonable way in his efforts to disseminate the everlasting Gospel among the waste places within our bounds.

O. J. BRENT, Chairman.

The Committee on Education presented their report, which was read and adopted:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Our Church has long since felt the deep importance of providing ample facilities for the thorough education of her children. These facilities have been provided in Greensboro' Female College, Trinity College and Davenport Female College. All these institutions are doing a noble work in their respective spheres. But in the founding and enlargement of these colleges, heavy debts have been incurred, the liquidation of which is a primary duty and a pressing necessity. The committee think that harmony of feeling and unity of effort will be promoted by consolidating the debts and interests of these colleges, and always bearing in mind that they are all the property of the Church, and that the prosperity of each is the prosperity of Methodism. In view of these statements, the committee recommend:

1st. Resolved, That J. A. Cunningham and V. A. Sharpe be appointed Agents to operate jointly in the interest of all these institutions.

2d. That in the work of collecting money and securing bonds whenever any donor expresses his desire that his contribution be applied to a particular one of said colleges, his wishes be strictly complied with; and in the event that no such directions shall be given, the said money and bond be divided in proportion to the present indebtedness of these colleges, which would be five-sixth to Greensboro' Female College and one-twelfth to each of the other two.

3d. That the Conference pledge a hearty co-operation with the Agents in carrying out the plans which they have so well matured, and any other plan, which they see fit to adopt to secure the desired result.

4th. That N. H. D. Wilson, B. Craven, L. S. Burkhead, T. M. Jones and A. A. Scroggs be appointed a committee to consider a plan of raising the salaries of the College Agents and fixing the amount.

5th. That we heartily recommend these colleges of the Church to the active sympathy, cordial support and liberal patronage of all our people.

+ 6th. That we appreciate the action of the Trustees of the North Carolina University in electing one of our body to a professorship in that institution, and that it be the pleasure of this Conference to request our presiding Bishop to appoint A. W. Mangum to that position. |

Respectfully submitted, H. T. HUDSON, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Church Property was presented, read and adopted, as follows :

REPORT ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

The Committee on Church Property report that they have carefully considered this important interest of the Church, and feel gratified in stating that the reports from the charges show that our people are awaking, to some extent at least, to the importance of providing comfortable homes for their pastors; as well as repairing, and making old churches more comfortable, and building new ones, in better style and taste than in the past.

While this is true, there is a great deal to be done in this direction, and we would call upon the members of this Conference to attend to the up-building of this interest of our Church in their respective charges. And we would urge, especially upon our laymen and friends, that the interest of the Church demands a good parsonage with necessary heavy furniture in every charge—one that will compare well in style and comfort with the residences of the people in their respective localities; and, that it is the duty of the Church to meet this demand at the earliest day practicable, and thereby prevent what is becoming too common among our preachers—the necessity of half locating, or in other words, of buying homes in which to put their families, while they preach the gospel in charges where there are no parsonages.

And also, prevent the inconvenience and trouble that most always arise upon the appointment of a preacher with a family to a charge without a parsonage. We would also insist that our preachers on charges having parsonages, should occupy and take good care of the same.

Your committee is unanimous in the opinion that great injury has resulted to us, by improper and unwise location of our Church edifices in towns as well as in the country. And hence, we advise that churches in towns be built on convenient lots, easy of access, and the buildings be of such style and comfort as will not only be a credit to our people, but will command the respect, and attract the stranger as he passes by.

In the country we should insist upon concentration, with more careful attention in our (superior) Church buildings, both as to appearance and comfort, and discourage the unwise practice of building so many inferior churches, as is now the case in many portions of the Conference.

The title deeds to all our Church property should be well secured and properly registered, and our churches having been built and consecrated to the worship of God, should not be used for other purposes than religious worship.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. C. PINNIX, Chairman

The Committee on the Letter of Dr. Deems offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The committee appointed to respond to the communication of the Rev. C. F. Deems, D. D., beg leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, Dr. Deems, who has been for thirty-four years a member of the North Carolina Conference, believing it to be his duty, has asked for, and has been granted a location; and,

WHEREAS, he has been eminently useful, and successful during his connection with our Conference, in his eloquent pulpit ministrations, in his arduous work as a competent instructor in our institutions of learning, and in wielding his vast influence over the public mind to promote the cause of Christ. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we can but deplore the act that severs him from us. But as in the providence of God his lot is cast in a field of labor where we believe his brilliant talents and active energy will accomplish grander results for the good of souls, we acquiesce in his decision.

Resolved, 2d. That we deeply appreciate his valuable services while among us, and pray that the benedictions of the great head of the Church may be upon him in his present important and inviting field of labor.

R. O. BURTON,
WM. CLOSS.

The Committee on Sunday Schools submitted their report, which was adopted, as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee on Sunday Schools would respectfully submit the following:

We regard the Sunday school as one of the most important and useful institutions of the Church, and one which should have the best possible encouragement and support of all ministers, parents and good citizens; as upon it depends largely the prosperity of the Church in all its varied relations. It is doing a noble work in this Conference, and the statistics show a commendable increase in its sphere of usefulness. Yet we know that in many places this work is sadly neglected from a want of interest, of competent teachers, and of better methods of instruction. We, therefore, submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That we recommend a special meeting to be held at each District Conference in the interest of Sunday schools.

Resolved, 2d, That Sunday School Conferences be held also in each pastoral charge under the direction of the Quarterly Conference.

Resolved, 3d, That we heartily endorse and recommend all our Sunday school literature, especially the International Lessons, now issued from our Publishing House at Nashville.

Resolved, 4th, That the attention of our ministers and teachers is hereby called to the importance of the system of Black Board instruction in the Sunday school, and they are hereby urged to encourage the use of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. RENN, Chairman.

Martin A. Holler, a local deacon of the Methodist Episcopal Church, having joined our Church, and having been recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Lenoir Circuit as a proper person to be recognized as a deacon in our Church, and having subscribed to the doctrines, discipline and ordination vows of our Church, was recognized as a deacon.

The order of the day, being the report of the Centennial Committee, it was taken up, and was, after various amendments, adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CENTENNIAL.

The committee to whom was referred the subject of observing the year 1876 as the Centennial of the introduction of Methodism in the State of North Carolina, report as follows:

On the 21st day of March, 1776, at a Conference held in the city of Baltimore, a circuit, called "Carolina Circuit," was organized, embracing an indefinite extent of territory and allowing the preacher in charge large liberty for his efforts in spreading "Scriptural holiness" throughout this hitherto unoccupied field. What a wide expanse is here presented for the matured thought of the developed Methodism of 1876. There was one solitary preacher, a stranger to every citizen of the State, belonging to a people who were unknown to all that dwelt in this vast extent of territory; even the name of the founder, under God, of this form of Christian faith and worship had never penetrated this remote region—all external surroundings were unpromising—and that herald of the Cross, with his horse, saddle-bags, Bible and hymn-books, trusting with a firm and unwavering faith in the God that had redeemed and pardoned him through the blood of his Son, came pioneering this unexplored realm, and carrying the "glad tidings" of the personal salvation that he experienced in his own consciousness, to those that sat in "the region of darkness and the shadow of death."

One hundred years, in the Providence of God, have passed away, and what things do we now behold? A great people instinct with the life and soul of a glorious Christian faith, churches, colleges, schools and seminaries of learning dotting this whole land, and the vitalizing power of Christianity informed with the energy of divine truth reaching into and elevating all classes, conditions and forms of belief.

Three generations of peoples have gone to their great reward, hundreds of Methodist preachers are enjoying the fruition of that glorious hope they preached to a dying world, thousands upon thousands of holy men and women have, with their pastors, joined the innumerable company of the redeemed, and are to-day singing that grand anthem that swells throughout the arches of glory and is pealing onward through the cycles of eternity, and thousands more, preachers and people, are hastening to join the glorious throng; and still the work goes on, widens, deepens, enlarges and pierces the serried ranks of sin, and girds itself for grander efforts. Let us see what a great work has been accomplished, and prepare for still greater triumphs.

Within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference there are one hundred and fifty pastoral charges, manned by one hundred and fifty effective soldiers of the Cross. We have nineteen superannuated preachers that have worn out their frames in pushing on the work, whose hearts warm within them at the triumphs they have witnessed and at the prospect of the rewards just before them. Two hundred and twenty-one local preachers are in our different fields of labor assisting by their counsels, efforts and characters, and fifty-four thousand members fill up the rank and file of this grand army. There are over six hundred Sunday schools full of the thought and power that Methodism has infused into our literature—nigh on to four thousand teachers are drilling recruits for the supply of the wasting powers of those that have “fought their fight” and gone to their reward—and this array of leaders is followed on by nearly thirty thousand children of the Church, preparing to lift up the weapons that have fallen from the unnerved grasp of those that so gloriously wielded them for the faith. We have three Conference colleges—a college was the cradle of Methodism—with property valued at one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars; fifty-five parsonages worth seventy-six thousand dollars, and six hundred and sixty churches worth six hundred thousand dollars. And this is only a sketch of what is included in the North Carolina Conference, not to mention the vast interests in the State of North Carolina within the bounds of the Virginia and Holston Conferences.

In view of these facts and statistics, your committee deem it interesting and proper to pause and look back over the field where this great conflict has been fought and won, and gather up, as far as possible, and put into active use for other conflicts, the results of this glorious past, and record the labors, toils and triumphs of the blessed dead. Your committee therefore recommend the Conference to adopt the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, That we will celebrate the year 1876 as the Centennial of North Carolina Methodism.

Resolved, That we hold in the city of Raleigh, commencing on the day the Centennial occurs—the 21st of March—a mass meeting of three or more days' continuance,—that appropriate religious services be held and addresses be made by such persons as shall be selected by a committee of five (three preachers and two laymen) to be appointed by this body, developing the history of the Church, and that one or more of our Bishops be invited to aid us by their presence and counsels.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder of the Raleigh district, the preacher in charge of the Edenton Street Church in Raleigh, the senior editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, W. J. W. Crowder and W. J. Young be appointed a committee to make arrangements for the celebration called for in the second resolution.

Resolved, That we will labor to raise sixty thousand dollars to liquidate the debts of the three colleges of the Conference.

Resolved, That one whole month be devoted to holding religious centennial meetings in each pastoral charge. That each pastor be requested to preach on the great distinctive doctrines and polity of Methodism, viz: the universality of the atonement; justification by faith; regeneration; the witness of the spirit; personal holiness; the itinerancy, and the necessity of our revival system—especially as developing the history and triumphs of Methodism in this State and in the world—and that we may thus interest all our people, young and old, in all the enterprises of the Church, and heartily enlist them in aiding their development and success.

Resolved, That during the month devoted to centennial meetings each pastor shall thoroughly canvass his charge, making, if possible, personal application to every member of his congregation—to all friends of education and progress—for donations, for the objects above stated; and, if it be not possible for the pastor to personally solicit all within his charge, that he be requested to enlist wise, prudent and active members of his congregation to see that this whole matter be brought to the attention of every one.

Resolved, That each Presiding Elder shall designate the month for holding the centennial meetings in each of the charges of his district, and that he be requested to hold not less than three special mass meetings within the bounds of his district for the purpose of arousing the energies and activities of the Church to the importance of the great objects contemplated.

Resolved, That each Presiding Elder shall be requested to set apart

Saturday of his District Conference as a centennial day, and that he shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a programme of exercises for that occasion, and that he shall have a collection taken up for the objects named.

Resolved, That Saturday of the next Annual Conference be designated as the "Conference Centennial Day;" that a suitable programme be arranged for that day by a committee appointed by this Conference for that purpose—the object being to present a summary of the results of the efforts of the centennial year and for general thanksgiving to Almighty God for His benedictions upon us.

Resolved, That each donor be privileged to direct the application of his donations to any one or more of the centennial objects, and that his directions be faithfully carried out.

Resolved, That the several sums collected by the operation of these resolutions be promptly transmitted by the Presiding Elders and preachers in charge to the proper agents or managers of the interests named.

Resolved, That the preachers and members of the Virginia and Holston Conferences, within the bounds of the State of North Carolina, be earnestly invited to unite with the North Carolina Conference in the observance of this centennial year.

Resolved, That all the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are hereby cordially invited and earnestly entreated to be with us at as many points within our bounds, during the year, as possible, and assist us by their presence, efforts and Godly councils in carrying out the great purposes contemplated in this report.

WHEREAS, We shall need more than ever the medium of the Raleigh Christian Advocate to give wide publicity to the centennial proceedings, speeches, historical reminiscences, &c., therefore,

Resolved, That the preachers be requested to put forth extra exertions to enlarge the subscription list of that paper as early in the year as possible, and also during the centennial month.

All of which is most respectfully submitted,

L. S. BURKHEAD, Chairman.

A. W. Mangum offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That if more than sixty thousand dollars shall be raised, that the excess, to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars, shall be applied to the building of a Methodist Church in Raleigh.

On motion of Prof. W. C. Doub, it was resolved that a collection be taken at the Centennial at Raleigh, to aid in building the Metropolitan Church in that city.

On motion of J. P. Moore, it was resolved that the pastor of Edenton Street Church be appointed agent to carry out the resolutions of the Conference and the plan of the trustees in reference to the erection of the proposed new Church.

The time was extended, on motion of R. O. Burton.

The Joint Board of Finance submitted their report, which was adopted:

After the report was adopted, the funds were distributed in open Conference.

On motion, it was resolved that when we adjourn, we will adjourn to meet at 3½ o'clock.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals read their report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to report that they are deeply impressed with the importance of circulating religious literature among the people. It is not enough that they have the Bible in their houses, but they should be supplied with religious books and with those religious periodicals, which are provided for them by the Church, and which are so well calculated to instruct them in all matters, which pertain to their spiritual good. Our Church has seen the need of having our people supplied with religious literature, hence there has been a publishing house established for this purpose, and we are glad to know that this great interest, is appreciated and cherished by us, and while we are gratified with the fact that our Conference is doing more to sustain the publishing house than any other, we hope that the efforts to extend the circulation of our books and periodicals will still be increased, for in the same ratio in which we help this institution, we will increase, we believe, the probability of the improvement of our people in knowledge and piety.

Our Sunday school literature has been in the past all that we could reasonably ask, and we doubt not will be in the future, under the conduct of our new secretary, equal to the demands of the times. We, therefore, commend it to all our Sunday schools.

The Nashville Christian Advocate, always excellent and true, we commend to the patronage of our people.

For deep research, profound thought and high literary merit, it is our opinion that the Southern Quarterly Review stands in the front rank among publications of that kind.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of our Conference, not only holds its place in the affections of the preachers and people, but is increasing in favor with both. Having already a very wide circulation, it still deserves a larger patronage, and is, we believe, destined to a wider sphere of usefulness; and, while we recommend to our people other periodicals, we are clearly of opinion that this paper has the first claim upon us, and when our people can take but one paper, we do not hesitate to say that that one should be our own Advocate.

The Monthly Messenger, lately enterprised at Monroe, is strictly a religious paper, and published in the interests of Methodism. Though small in size, it is intended to be filled with select matter, and we, doubt not, will exert an influence for good. We, therefore, commend it to the favor of our people.

We offer, in conclusion, the following resolution:

Resolved, That we request the Bishop to re-appoint Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

V. A. SHARPE, Chm'n.

The Conference then adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.

Question 19th was called, "What preachers have died during the year?"

Ans. W. F. Clegg.

The Committee on Memoirs presented their report, which was adopted as follows:

Rev. William F. Clegg, the subject of this Memoir, was born near Pittsboro', Chatham County, N. C., August 10th, 1827, and died at the place of his birth, June 16th, 1875, in the 48th year of his age.

Born of Methodist parents he was converted in early life, and as he grew to manhood developed a life of deep piety, thorough consecration, and a burning zeal for the cause of Christ.

He joined the North Carolina Conference at the session held in Louisburg in 1852, from which time, till within a year and a half of his death, he was one of the most active and useful ministers among us. Without superior physical or mental endowments, but thoroughly consecrated to the Master's work he achieved glorious things for God and the world. "Neither count I my life dear unto myself so that I may finish my course with joy, and this ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus," was the motto of his life, and, wherever he labored, scores were converted by his ministry, a goodly number of whom have become prominent in the Church and now live to bless his memory. He was afflicted for nearly fifteen years with the disease which finally terminated his valuable life, during which time the annealing fires purified his spirit for its upward flight to the home of God and the good.

During his last sickness he talked much of his approaching end, and always without a fear. He declared the gospel to be more to him, in the way of a rich and blessed experience, than he had proclaimed it to be to others, and fully capable of meeting the wants of humanity in any, and all, of its varied conditions. In his death the North Carolina Conference has lost one of its most pious members and faithful workers, and while we deplore his death, yet we have the comforting assurance given by his pure life and dying testimony that heaven has gained another glorified spirit—another voice has gone up to swell the tide of song which rolls through the ranks of the redeemed.

W. H. MOORE,
T. W. GUTHRIE,
H. H. GIBBONS.

Question 4th was taken up, "Who are admitted into full connection?"

L. J. Holden, L. E. Stacy, P. W. F. Stamey and W. H. Watkins, having previously passed the examination of character, and having been approved by the Committee of Examination, were admitted into full connection.

The following was passed, on motion of E. A. Yates.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered to the Press of this city for courteous attention given to the business of this body.

On motion of Dr. Wilson, C. W. King was placed in the superannuated relation.

The Conference then proceeded to raise money for the publication of the Minutes.

GENERAL AVERAGES.

These are made with great care, and are very close approximations. From the stand point of effect, they show with tolerable accuracy, the forces, resources and material activity of Methodism in the Conference. The table below shows the number of square miles in each District; the number of white members per square mile; the number of white population over ten years old; the number of white population over ten years old for each member; the value of the real and personal property of Methodists in each District; the per cent. paid on valuation; the sum paid per white member, and the whole sum paid.

GENERAL AVERAGE OF WORK, &c.

There were during last year one hundred and twenty-nine pastors, not including presiding elders. The statistics give to each pastor an average one-and-three-fourth local preachers; four hundred and sixteen white members; twelve infants baptized; twenty-nine adults baptized; nearly five Sunday schools; twenty-nine Sunday school teachers; two hundred and fifteen Sunday school scholars; a little less than one-half a parsonage, and about five-and-one-half churches.

The best approximation gives twenty-seven thousand five hundred sermons preached during the year. This would give one increase in white membership for about six-and-four-fifth sermons. By the usual calculation of attendance, the average congregation in each of the seven hundred and seven churches ought to have been one hundred and fifty-two, and the whole number that generally attended our churches during the year, was about two hundred and forty thousand, which is over half the whole white population over ten years old.

AVERAGE PAYMENTS.

On the general average, the presiding elders and preachers received eighty-three per cent. of their claims: a presiding elder received nine hundred and ninety-six dollars and a pastor, five hundred and fifty-two dollars. Each white member paid eighteen cents to the presiding elder; one dollar and thirty-two cents to the preacher; three cents to the bishop; ten cents to missions; eight cents to Conference collection; two cents to the poor; seven cents to Sunday schools; four mills to the Bible cause; twenty-one cents to educational purposes; eighty-seven cents to building and repairing churches; eight cents to incidental expenses.

The whole sum raised for all purposes is one hundred and sixty thousand and thirty-two dollars and twenty-seven cents, giving to each white member two dollars and ninety-seven cents.

[The transferred preachers are reckoned with those of the Conferences to which they now belong. The preachers who were discontinued this year (61), and those who were located (88), are not counted; those who were admitted on trial (260), and those who were readmitted (34), are counted among the traveling preachers, though many of them are also reckoned with the local preachers. The colored members, for the most part, have left our Connection for the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America, organized by our Bishops under the authority of the General Conference—they are reported in their own Minutes—hence the apparent decrease in that department.]
